

For Immediate Release
Date: September 5, 2011
steven@greerfoundation.org

Contact: Dr. Steven J. Greer

Wounded Warrior Receives VIP Treatment ATTENDS CALL OF DUTY MODERN WARRIOR 3 EXPO

Eastman, GA – The Greer Foundation today announced that it teamed with Dalton Fury to send wounded warrior and Army Ranger James Knuppenburg to Los Angeles, CA on 2-3 September, 2011, for the premiere of Call Of Duty, Modern Warrior 3. Ranger Knuppenburg was shot in the stomach three times by enemy small arms fire. He and his girlfriend Loren Carpenter received VIP treatment at the event.

The media was all over Ranger Knuppenburg as Hollywood types and top gamers around the world were eager to meet a real American warrior. Thanks to the folks at Sledgehammer Games for making it all possible.

More than 20 years ago, Dr. Greer served in the same Ranger Battalion that Ranger Knuppenburg was assigned to when he was wounded in action. “Rangers are the tip of the spear...always have been, always will be. It was our honor to be involved in this project and help send a real warrior to meet with those that only play warriors” said Dr. Steven Greer, founder of The Greer Foundation.

For more information about The Greer Foundation visit their web site at www.greerfoundation.org

The Greer Foundation focuses on promoting the values of America's Soldiers - loyalty, duty, respect, selfless service, honor, integrity, and personal courage. Each year, the Foundation's programs help inspire hundreds of exceptionally promising individuals to emerge as leaders in America's Armed Forces and other professional disciplines.

###

Ranger Knuppenburg speaks with the media outside the Expo in LA.