The Greer Foundation Honors Fellowship of Christian Athletes with TARLAVSKY-PRICE YOUTH LEADERSHIP AWARD
Award is a Prestigious Honor for Outstanding Service to Youth

Eastman, GA – The Greer Foundation today announced it has awarded the TARLAVSKY-PRICE YOUTH LEADERSHIP AWARD, an honor offered in recognition of exceptional service to youth in memory of two fallen warriors, to Magnolia Midlands Fellowship of Christian Athletes in Eastman, GA.

Established in 2005, the award is presented to individuals or organizations that exemplify the characteristics of two of America's finest young Army officers - Captain Michael Tarlavsky and Chief Warrant Officer Bruce Price.

Answering the nation's call to duty during the Global War on Terrorism, these brave men led their Special Forces A-Detachments with distinction under very difficult circumstances. Both warriors earned the Silver Star Medal for their courage and valor under fire in Iraq and Afghanistan respectively. The Greer Foundation established this award to honor their sacrifice and leadership.

“Although Tarlavsky and Price were truly remarkable leaders, their greatest impact was that both men treated everyone with the utmost dignity and respect. Their persona, professionalism, and positive attitude influenced many. The TARLAVSKY-PRICE YOUTH LEADERSHIP AWARD recognizes young leaders and organizations who serve children and exhibit loyalty, duty, respect, selfless service, honor, integrity, and personal courage,” said Dr. Steven Greer, founder of The Greer Foundation.

“Recipients of the TARLAVSKY-PRICE YOUTH LEADERSHIP AWARD are role models for all Americans,” Dr. Greer said. “Leading youth to Christ is what FCA and Matt Walker do best...their annual Power Camps have resulted in thousands of decisions for Christ...including my own son.”
