The Greer Foundation Sponsors Wounded Warrior Fishing Trip

Chesapeake Bay, MD – The Greer Foundation recently sponsored a Wounded Warrior Fishing trip for troops recovering at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington, DC.

Twenty wounded warriors and spouses loaded the chartered boat and headed out for an exciting and peaceful fishing exhibition. After a day on the water, the troops and spouses were treated to an authentic Maryland Crab dinner at a local Crab Shack.

“We enjoy supporting our wounded warriors. I don’t think we can do enough to say thanks for the sacrifices they have endured for our freedoms” said Steven Greer, founder of The Greer Foundation.
